Arioch Wentworth, a wealthy gentleman of Boston, is sojourning at the Pico House.

Thomas Leahy has an orange tree upon which is the third crop of oranges borne this year.

A New York party of tourists embracing E. A. Saxton and family and Kysor Cox, Esq., are at the Pico.

Col. Hewitt has returned from his paezar to the San Fernando Tunnel. He reports work progressing at the most satisfactory rate imaginable.

The Important under the Lafayette will guarantee to sell clothing, hats, boots, and shoes cheaper than any other house in Los Angeles.

Mr. J. M. Riley, the well known contractor, has returned to the city after a lengthy paezar in the up-country.

"Quincey Hall" under the St. Charles Hotel, offers the finest Diagonal, Beaver, Spring and Summer clothing at New York retail prices. a15t

The third trial of B. Newman for the shooting of Pete Gabriel is underlined for the 17th inst. Col. Kewen will conduct the defense.

Also, Requena and First streets present a greatly improved appearance since the work of grading and sidewalk-walking them has been completed.

The Important, under the Lafayette hotel, makes clothing a specialty, therefore you can find the cheapest and most complete stock in Los Angeles.

If you have the blues, or feel a sort of weakness of the stomach, go to No. 39 Spring street and tell Owen Gibney to set out his Davenport whisky, and you will be cured.

And now comes a rumor that the ladies are about to avail themselves of the immemorial privileges of leap year and give a hop. Happy may be the dote who is bidden to the feast.

The Pico oil claim is reputed as producing 20 barrels of oil per day yielding eight barrels of refined oil. Denton & Co. who do the refining are about to enlarge their works.

Don't forget to lay in water enough to-day to last you through to-morrow. The city water works will shut off the supply on Sunday. Again we say do not forget.

The Business College and Writing Institute, Grange Hall, teaches practically those things which business men daily have to do. F. E. Arnold, President. apr-15t

The Good Templars' social last night was a very enjoyable affair. The evening passed away pleasantly, enlivened by vocal and instrumental music, recitations and other literary exercises.

Goldsmith the tobaccoist—well if you see anything strange in his conduct just remember that girl babies ain't born every day. That's what's the matter with Goldsmith.

Twenty-five dollars can be saved by calling at the Quincey Hall under the St. Charles Hotel. The largest assortment of clothing, hats and furnishing goods ever brought to this city. a15t Polaski & Goodwin had a couple of very fine fleeces from their French Merino stock, on exhibition at their store yesterday. One of the fleeces from a buck weighed 48 pounds, the other 42.

The wool is almost silky in the fineness of the texture. With the facilities that the Important have enabled them to sell their clothing, hats and shoes at exact San Francisco prices. Give them a call and you are bound to be pleased with their prices and goods.

The season for picnicking is approaching. The Irish Literary and Social Club will hold theirs at Washington Gardens on the 23d of April and the French Benevolent Society will give a fete champetre at Arroyo Seco on the 14th of May.

The most important house in this city is the Important clothing emporium under the Lafayette Hotel. They sell their clothing cheaper than any other house in Los Angeles, and keep by far the largest selection. Give them a call.

We direct special attention to the advertisement of the sale of those Hill lots offered by J. W. Potts. The sales take place on Monday and Tuesday, next, and afford a splendid opportunity for the purchase of desirable property at buyers' own terms.

The cheapest house on the Pacific coast is the Important under the Lafayette Hotel. They make clothing a specialty, and therefore carry the largest stock. Call ere buying elsewhere.

A committee of the citizens of Orange recently visited the saloon in that town and protested against keeping the same open. Finally however the proprietor and committee compromised upon the basis of keeping the establishment closed on Sundays.

Equatordomi.

Being desirous of seeing the progress of the squatter movement, day before yesterday we again went to the front. Arriving near the scene of action and having a vivid remembrance of the good fare which made our first trip so pleasant, and being hungry we again made our way to the hospitable mansion of our friend Joughin for a square meal. The mistress of the house set before us such a repast as one who lives in restaurants and is accustomed to Mongolian cookery can well appreciate. Butter made by herself, and such as we seldom taste, meat cooked to a turn, biscuit light as a snowflake, and everything else that a hungry man could wish gladdened our heart and tickled our palate, and we left kindly disposed towards all mankind when we had finished. We took a stroll among the new houses which were already built or in process of erection, and conversed with the builders. We found them sanguine and confident of holding their locations. On one claim two men had started to build but one weakened when his house was two thirds finished and sold out to his more stumpy rival for ten dollars and started to hunt a new location. Claims which have been settled and cultivated for years were "jumped" and the occupants notified to travel. In every direction men with eager and excited looks, and maps in their hands were searching for land not yet appropriated. As far as the eye could see new houses dotted the hitherto almost desolate region and loads of lumber rolled along the different roads. It was a lively scene and we shall not soon forget it. As yet no acts of violence have occurred, but some of those who improvements have been jumped and who have been invited to leave express a determination to defend their property to the last. We fear that before this matter is settled blood will be spilt.

Complimentary Concert.

A grand complimentary vocal and instrumental concert has been tendered to Professor Schad and will take place at Turn-Verein Hall in this city on the evening of Wednesday, April 19th. Our most favorably known amateurs have volunteered for the praise-worthy object. The affair will be a most delightful one as will be seen by the following

FINALE.

The County Treasury Law.

The District Attorney and the County Treasurer by counsel appeared before the District Court Thursday morning, Judge Sepulveda presiding, and the Counsel for the Treasurer, Mr. Bronson, submitted a series of objections to the validity of the law regarding the sealing of all public moneys not absolutely required for the expenses of the current month following each count by the Board of Examiners.

Among other reasons submitted were the following:

1st—That the law is not uniform in its operations, as it only applies to three counties in the State.

2d—That the sealing of the money might leave an insufficient amount unsealed to meet the warrants, and subject the Treasurer to action for nonpayment, notwithstanding the money was on hand.

3d—That Temp was in office two weeks before the act passed, and no new liabilities can be imposed other than those existing at the time he took the office.

The question will be argued orally and at length on the 1st of May.

Oh, Ah, Um!

The Anaheim Gazette Man has been smitten with Mark Twain's disease.

Witness the following:

Whenever the proprietor Of the Gazette—that fine papaire—Hears as on the office square Which seems as if it is a square

Was coming to pay for his papaire; For only weekly Gazette only ten dollars, For a daily Gazette only ten dollars, Or twenty-five cents by the carrier.

He knows from his own wrinkles of care And sits him down in his rickety chair, And gives unto the sub-editor A paper with his signature.

Such evidences of mental imbecility are at once saddening and humiliating.

To Patrons and the Public.

As I have been suddenly called from my business to go East for from three to six weeks, I beg leave to state that Dr. E. M. Collier has kindly consented to occupy my office and attend him for his merits and professional skill, and not from any selfish motive on my part.

S. W. BROOKE.

Yesterday being Good Friday, the solemn services appropriate to the day were held in the Episcopal and Catholic churches of this city. Very large congregations were present at both churches. The main altar at the cathedral was decorated with its ornaments to denote the desolation of the church in view of the crucifixion of the Redeemer.

The solemn music of the Tenebrae was sung by the efficient choir of the Cathedral last evening. To-morrow being Easter Sunday the services at the Episcopal and Catholic churches will be of a peculiarly joyous and interesting character as they will celebrate the resurrection of the Saviour from the tomb.

Teach Curled Leaf.

It is a positive fact that the peach tree in Los Angeles suffers from what is called curled leaf. What causes the leaf to curl itself into an abnormal roll? Have you ever taken the pains to examine your curled-up leaves? Probably you have not thought of it. Now, to-morrow, go to your peach trees, and where you find a tree whose leaves are curled, patiently unroll the leaves and you will find a full fledged, winged fly. This fly is the product simply of its progenitor. All our peaches are grown on a variety of this fact in a few minutes. Now comes the great trouble. What is it that punctures the early leaf of the peach, and thus inoculates it with the egg that hatches out into the little fly that wings itself into the air? We have made a very careful search through our library to see if we could get at the name of the terrible monster that is the father that is doing the curled-leaf business for the peach orchards of California. But our library has not a work on entomology that would enable our horticulturists to trace up and find out the father of this curled-leaf pest. Trusting that your journal will present this important matter to our peach tree growers, I am, very truly, Yours,

W. M. McPHERSON.

Los Angeles, April 14th, 1876.

Yesterday was the avant courier of the heated term. The thermometer went up to 73° in the shade, and people hunted the side of the street sheltered from the sun's rays with what McC., of the blanket sheet would call "a great deal of avidity." Ice cream and soda water were in demand, and the searchers after the latter named beverage were so much in a hurry that when they were asked what syrup they preferred, would frequently answer, "Don't care." Sly dogs those "don't care" fellows. Quite Joe Bagstock-y in fact.

Mr. F. J. Clark, a wealthy and influential gentleman from Boston is sojourning at the Grand Central Hotel. Mr. Clark has already visited Pasadena and been the recipient of the hospitalities of Judge Ben Eaton. He has decided that the soil in that section is equal to that of Massachusetts, the society as good as that of the "hub," and the climate of this part of the country even better. We hope he will conclude to "squat" somewhere in this region.

Geo. Trent can oil the driest pair of boots and make them as pliable as a kid glove, and then with his incomparable English blacking put on the most brilliant polish. George will also take orders for cleaning, cleaning, whitening, etc. Office, entrance to Hotel des Princes.

An entertainment will be given this evening at Turn-Verein Hall for the benefit of the German Benevolent Society. A most attractive programme consisting of dramatic performances and concluding with a social dance has been arranged. The hall ought to be crowded as the object of the entertainment is a worthy one.

At the Palace shaving saloon, a few doors South of the Postoffice, Robinson, the Prince of tonsorial artists, holds his court. It is the place to get a clean shave for fifteen cents, a fashionable cut of the hair and a luxurious shampoo.

The Catholic Total Abstinence Society will give a pleasant reception and ball at their hall on Monday evening next. A select company will be present and a grand time is anticipated.

The good resulting from our public library, imperfect as are its present arrangements, is so great that it is a matter of wonder that some of our wealthy citizens do not at once enlarge its capacities for usefulness.

The Commissioners of the Board of Public Works are expected to arrive to-day or to-morrow, when the Board will at once organize.

Col. Kewen has been compelled by a press of professional engagements to postpone his lecture before the Dashiways until further notice.

Mr. Arioch Wentworth, a Boston millionaire, is at the Pico.
